

Join the Read2Dream Book Club

Originally designed for classroom use by a local teacher with 33 years of experience in reading education, the Read2Dream Book Club has a strong track record of motivating children to read. Now available on online, this program allows members to track the books they read and earn rewards. Book reviews will help readers discover level-appropriate books they will love. Parents will find tips to help their young readers. Join at www.read2dream.com — it's kid-friendly and FREE!
